

Dear Friends and Mandolin Enthusiasts,

Most of you already know that for many years I have been traveling all around the world performing and teaching mandolin with courses, workshops, private lessons, etc.

I will not stop doing that and, since many of you asked, I'm here to announce that I'm now also offering a new service with my

Online Mandolin Lessons

(using Skype and soon with other common internet video-conference systems)

I recommend online lessons for very beginner players and up.

Fees are $30 per 1/2 hour and $50 per one hour.
Payment is possible through the PayPal system.

You can book your online lesson right now just emailing to me.

Your help in spreading this news around will be appreciated.

Thank you and all the best

Carlo
